TEMORA BOOK LAUNCH TOUR

Crown Land to Closer Settlement by Neville Pollard

16/17/18 March 2018

Come and join us on a special tour to Temora to launch Neville Pollard's new book "Crown Land to Closer Settlement" giving a definitive history of how the Railways in the South West of NSW became a major factor in the settlement of the region.

On Friday 16th March, travel by the 7.42am Melbourne XPT from Central to Cootamundra, due to arrive at 12.50pm. A coach will meet the train to take us on tour with local historian Steve Baker to view the now closed Tumut Line to Gundagai and the deteriorating Murrumbidgee River rail bridge. We will also look at Coolac, the only accessible station location along this section of the line. Tour notes on this line will be available on the day of travel.

On return to Cootamundra, settle in to the Cootamundra Gardens Motel for our 2 nights stay. Departing on Saturday Morning we will travel to Temora stopping at Cootamundra West, Stockinbingal and the Temora Wheat Sub Terminal before arriving at the Temora Railway Station Museum. The Museum Heritage Walk opening and Book launch will take place at 11.00am followed by a BBQ Lunch in the grounds. During the afternoon we will visit the Temora Aviation Museum and The Temora Rural and Ambulance Museum including an Aboriginal interpretive display before returning to our Motel in Cootamundra. Our return travel to Sydney on Sunday 18th March will be on the Griffith to Sydney Explorer Train departing Cootamundra at 10.30am.

You will need to make your own Rail Travel Booking with NSW Trainlink after completing this Booking Form.
