

CELEBRATE WITH US THE ARHS'S 90TH BIRTHDAY ON A VICTORIAN LUNCHEON OUTING, TUESDAY 6TH JUNE 2023.

This will be our first luncheon outing under the ARHSnsw banner and what a better time to start with a celebration of the ARHS's 90 years of service to Australian rail enthusiasts in all States of Australia.

To start our luncheons with the ARHSnsw, we will have as guests James Dalton, General Manager ARHSnsw and Stephen McLachlan, Editor Australia Railway History.

We meet at Flinders Street Station at 10:05 to travel on the 10:18 Glen Waverley train. At Glen Waverley we then travel on the route 753 bus at 11:07 to Boronia for lunch at the Boronia Hotel. After lunch we will be joining the 14:00 train to the newly opened Union Station. After an inspection of the new station the outing ends.

You can look at the progress of the Union Station Build & removal of level crossings at Mont Albert Rd & Union Rd here:
