AUSTRALIAN MUSLIM HISTORY

Uncover an unknown part of Australian history in this fascinating and interactive Gallery.

Visitors will be amazed as they trace the intercultural exchange between Makassan fisherman and Northern Australian Indigenous communities before European settlement in 1788 CE. Another section of the exhibition pays homage to the Afghan cameleers, highlighting their important contributions to our country's infrastructure and economy. We will have a guided tour of the Museum of 1.5 hours duration, possibly in groups of 15.

We meet at Southern Cross Station in the waiting room opposite Platforms 5 at 8:40am.

We catch an 8:55am Upfield Line train to Moreland Station, look at the original Station Building and platform repurposed as a toilet block and the Moreland Signal Box, then walk to the 510 bus at 9:28am along Moreland Road & Normanby Avenue to Anderson St, then walk 400 metres to the Museum.

Leaving, we get the 510 Bus on Normanby Avenue to Nicholson St, then route #1 tram to Bell St, then 903 Bus along Bell Street to the lunch venue, Darebin RSL near corner St Georges Rd & Bell St, after lunch then walk to Bell Station & Train back to the City.

Cost for the day will be admission to the Museum plus $5 Tour Notes & Administration charge, a total of $15.00.
